

An aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood. A large, rectangular plot of land is outlined in white, containing several large, grey-roofed industrial or warehouse buildings. The plot is situated between Slotsherrensvej to the north and Fuglagervej to the south. To the east, the plot is bounded by a road that runs parallel to Slotsherrensvej. The surrounding area consists of smaller residential houses with various roof colors, interspersed with green trees. Several streets are labeled with white text: 'Boeslundevej' at the top, 'Faksingevej' on the right, 'Kongstedvej' on the far right, 'Tjbjergvej' on the bottom left, and 'Lærcl' at the bottom center. The main road running through the center is 'Slotsherrensvej'.
